EURECOM has developed a synthetic face animation dataset generated entirely within Unreal Engine using MetaHuman assets available through Quixel Bridge (hereafter referred to as the "Dataset").

The Dataset contains 10 synthetic identities performing 20 distinct head and facial motion patterns, including expressions such as amusement, anger, disgust, laughter, sadness, and surprise. All sequences are rendered at a resolution of 1920×1080 pixels and are intended for research in computer vision, biometrics, machine learning, and related fields.

PARTNER has requested access to the Dataset for research and development purposes. Both parties agree to the following terms:

Article 1: PURPOSE

1.1

EURECOM grants PARTNER access to the Dataset free of charge.

The Dataset may not be shared, redistributed, sublicensed, or otherwise made available to third parties without prior written permission from EURECOM.

Article 2: ATTRIBUTION

Any publication, report, presentation, thesis, or public communication based on the Dataset shall:

- Acknowledge EURECOM as the source of the Dataset.
- Cite the associated dataset publication(s), if provided by EURECOM.

PARTNER may use images, video frames, or visualizations of the synthetic MetaHuman identities contained in the Dataset as figures or illustrations in research publications, presentations, and academic communications.

Article 3: INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

The Dataset and all associated materials remain the exclusive property of EURECOM.

No intellectual property rights are transferred to PARTNER under this agreement.

Article 4: TERMINATION

EURECOM may terminate this agreement if PARTNER breaches its terms.

Article 5: DISCLAIMER

The Dataset is provided "as is" without any express or implied warranties.

EURECOM shall not be liable for any damages arising from the use of the Dataset.

Article 6: GOVERNING LAW
